

Fresno County Farm and Nutrition Day 2010

“Planting a seed for the future... while growing a healthy community one at a time”

FACTS

- 99 classes from more than 30 schools, 11 districts from throughout Fresno County

Participating Districts & Schools:

District	Schools
Alvina	Alvina Elementary
Fresno Unified	Ayer Elementary, Balderas Elementary, Easterby Elementary, Roeding Elementary, Wolters Elementary, Wilson Elementary, Ewing Elementary, Homan Elementary, Lawless Elementary, Leavenworth Elementary, Storey Elementary, Bullard TALENT, John Muir Elementary
Clovis Unified	Cole Elementary, Fancher Creek Elementary, Fort Washington Elementary, Jefferson Elementary, Weldon Elementary, Harold Woods Elementary
Central Unified	Madison Elementary, Biola-Pershing Elementary, Morningstar Academy, Houghton-Kearney
Sierra Unified	Sierra Elementary, Auberry Elementary
Burrel Union	Burrel Union Elementary
Raisin City School	Raisin City School
Parlier Unified	Cesar E. Chavez Elementary
Firebaugh Las Deltas Unified	HM Bailey Primary
Clovis Christian	Clovis Christian
Monroe	Monroe Elementary

- More than 2,100 students
- More than 550 teachers and chaperones
- More than 32 booths, presenters and demonstrations
- More than 50 volunteers
- Event organizers: Big Fresno Fair, Fresno County Farm Bureau, Fresno County Office of Education, Friends of the Big Fresno Fair and Fresno County UC Cooperative Extension
- More than 25 financial and in-kind sponsors
- This fifth annual event helps educate students about how their food is grown, the importance of eating healthy foods, and about the diverse career opportunities in the food, fiber and resource industries.
- A big focus of the day is the importance of making healthy food choices and good nutrition, much of which is provided on a daily basis by the bounty of diversified “Food Pyramid” crops and products produced in Fresno County. At the event, students have the opportunity to taste healthy snacks, including citrus, raisins and frozen fresh-peach popsicles.

A BIG THANK YOU to the many sponsors, presenters and volunteers who help make the 2010 Farm and Nutrition Day such a success.