

“Planting a seed for the future... while growing a healthy community one at a time”

Fresno County Farm & Nutrition Day Facts

- ☺ 72 classes from throughout Fresno County
22 participating schools:
Burrel Union Elementary (Burrel); Pine Ridge Elementary (Pine Ridge); Fairmont Elementary (Sanger); American Union Elementary (American Union); Ann Leavenworth Elementary (Fresno); Bakman Elementary
(Fresno); Balderas Elementary (Fresno); Easterby Elementary (Fresno); Figarden Elementary (Fresno); Houghton-Kearney Elementary (Central);
Huron Elementary (Coalinga-Huron); Jackson Elementary (Fresno); Lawless Elementary (Fresno); Kerman-Floyd Elementary (Kerman); San Joaquin Elementary (Golden Plains); Susan B. Anthony Elementary (Fresno); Laton Elementary (Laton); Robinson Elementary (Fresno); St.
Anthony’s Elementary (Fresno); Sun Empire Elementary (Kerman);
Webster Elementary (Fresno); West Park Elementary (West Park)

- ☺ About 1,700 students

- ☺ Almost 400 teachers and parent chaperons

- ☺ 24 presentations; six demonstrations; 45 booths

- ☺ More than 200 volunteers

- ☺ Event sponsors: Fresno County Farm Bureau, Fresno County Office of Education, Big Fresno Fair and California Cattlewomen’s Association

- ☺ Focus is to help educate students about how their food is grown, eating healthy foods, and about the many career opportunities in the food and fiber industry.

- ☺ A big focus of this special event is the importance of making healthy food choices and good nutrition, much of which is provided on a daily basis by the bounty of diversified “food pyramid” crops and products produced in Fresno County.